Dear Mr. Viti:

Thank you very much for your letter enclosing signed application-for-membership card. I will be very glad to present this to the Council at its next meeting, which will probably be held in September. At that time I will inform you of their action, which, I have every reasnn to believe, will be a favorable one.

If I can be of service to you, please feel free to call upon me.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

29. Dec. 1928

Dear Sirs:

I should thank you to send me a copy of the publication respecting Peace Medals presented to the American Indians. I am unable to enclose the price as I do not recall what I paid for the copy I bought last year.

Please send it to me at 215 South 16th Street, Philadelphia, by Special delivery

Yours very truly

Mr. Marcel A. Viti,
215 South 16th Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Under separate cover I take pleasure in sending you a copy of Mr. Belden's book on Indian Peace Medals, and I am enclosing a memorandum to cover.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

3, January 1929

Dear Mr. Noe:

I thank you very much for sending me the Indian medals book so promptly.

I am reminded that the official badge I promised you when you received the medal issued by the Italian Government in commemoration of the Dedication of Italy's sesquicentennial gift to America, has not been sent to you on account of my absence from here. I take pleasure in enclosing it herewith, together with one of the official invitations which may be of use in making record of the medal.

I am,

faithfully yours

Marcel A. Viti

5th January, 1929

Mr. Marcel A. Viti,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Viti:

Thank you for yours of January 3d, enclosing cheque for dues and for the book sent recently. Thank you also very much indeed for the specimen of the official badge at the occasion of the opening of the Fountain, which is such a distinguished addition to the sculptural beauties of Fairmount Park. We are very glad to have this and appreciate your sending it to us.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
